Reduce your risk

Locate cases from other services including Westlaw, LexisLibrary, HeinOnline, BAILLI and over 100 more when using vLex services, such as JustisOne. This ensures that you reduce the risk of missing related and important cases. We link you to both free and commercial services, some of which will require external subscriptions. Only with vLex services can you access over 50,000 cases from the UK, Ireland and the Caribbean which are not available anywhere else.

Reported and unreported

Justis and vLex believe that you should have access to as much supporting material as possible to help your clients, and with only 20% of UK superior court cases being reported each year a large number of important precedents remain out of reach for most practitioners. With Justis' core packages, you will have access to both reported and unreported cases, giving you and your clients the upper-hand in litigious matters.
